VETERINARIAN'S OATH

Being admitted to the profession of veterinary medicine, I solemnly dedicate myself and the knowledge I possess to the benefit of society, to the conservation of our livestock resources and to the relief of suffering of animals. I will practice my profession conscientiously with dignity. The health of my patients, the best interest of their owners, and the welfare of my fellow man, will be my primary considerations.

I will, at all times, be humane and temper pain with anesthesia where indicated. I will not use my knowledge contrary to the laws of humanity, nor in contravention to the ethical code of my profession. I will uphold and strive to advance the honor and noble traditions of the veterinary profession.

These pledges I make freely in the eyes of God and upon my honor.

"For he who can, with gentle hands and soothing words, calm the fears of a stricken animal, has a gift reserved for few."

"He who can diagnose the sickness of a creature that cannot speak—one that cannot either by sign or gesture give an indication of the seat of fatal illness—is one endowed with knowledge, sympathy, and understanding far beyond that reached by ordinary men. He who can with the aid of medical science, brighten the eyes, stay the fever, energize the pulse, and build resistance against diseases in an animal, has reached the goal only a favored few attain."

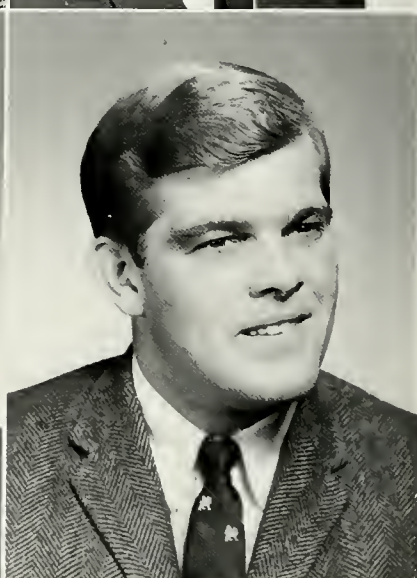

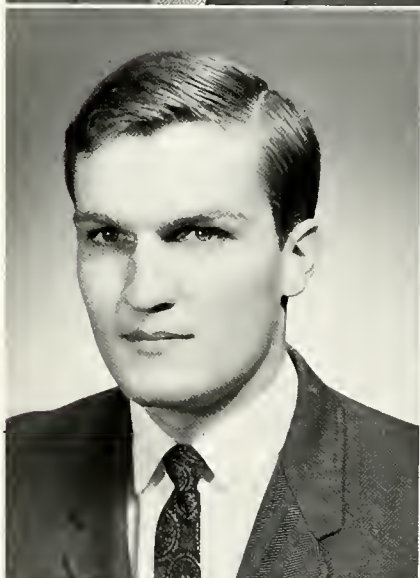

"And what are his rewards? The knowledge that he has lived a true usefulness in helping creatures that cannot help themselves."

Alpha

Psi

The picture to the left symbolizes life in Alpha Psi. The handshake is the symbol of brotherhood, our forte. The pin and certificate symbolize membership and pride and the gavel, order and dedication. The alumni plaque is a sign of continued service to a beloved group. The trophy indicates fellowship and spirit. Alpha Psi looks for and tries to bring out the best in the best of men. Its philosophy is brotherhood, comradeship, and professional training. It's a good place to be; we are proud we belong.

Alpha Psi Wives

Alpha Psi Wives began their year in August, 1967, with a Garden Tea for the rushees. Rush week and Homecoming kept the wives busy as they helped the men with house cleaning and hors d'oeuvres. Many knowledgeable, entertaining speakers were heard throughout the year. The annual Christmas party with the Omega Tau Sigma Wives Club was held at the Alpha Psi house where they spent an enjoyable evening of making ornaments.

With the new year came plans for the Annual Wives' Spaghetti Supper. In May there was a Senior Tea held to honor our departing friends.

Graduate Veterinarians: Hugh Black, Peter Lamont, L. D. Dhingra, Ronald Wright, Ted Senta, Michael Hockman, Harold Farris, A. Ian Swann, A. K. Bhargava.

Class of 1968: Ames Allen, Thomas Hickey, Lewis McClaren, Michael Miller, George Nyland, Judith Sauerbrei Sanders, Larry Sautter, Robert Slobody, Robert Smatt, Rufus, Sparks, Lester Starcher, David Stroschine, Robert Stuhlman, Walter Threfall and Victoria Lea Voith.

Class of 1969: Robert Allen, Herbert Betts, Neal Caldwell, George Cloyd, John Harroff, Richard Hersman, James Walsh, and John Wilson.

Dr. Paige K. Besch (right) is receiving congratulations and a certificate of honorary membership to Phi Zeta from Dr. P. W. Murdick

The 1968 initiates are pledging to fulfill the principles and assume the responsibility of Phi Zeta membership.

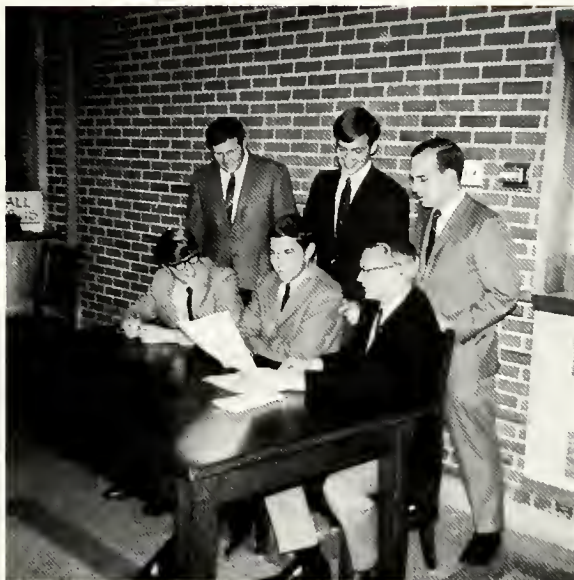

Honorary membership is based on distinguished service to the advancement of science relating to the animal industry. On May 1, 1968, Dr. Paige K. Besch was initiated as an honorary member. Dr. Besch is an Assoc. Prof. of Ob. and Gyn. at OSU. This outstanding researcher has given freely of his time and talents to aid graduate students and faculty in our college.

The objective of Phi Zeta is to recognize and promote scholarship and research in matters pertaining to the welfare and diseases of animals. In keeping with these objectives, Phi Zeta sponsored several lectures this past year on many diversified subjects.

A new concept in controlling the bovine respiratory complex

Stress plus respiratory viral agents act as the triggering mechanism for secondary bacterial infection in calves under range conditions, during shipment and in the feedlot.

New Rea-Plex vaccine helps break the triggering pathogenic chain of this respiratory complex in stressed calves by controlling the two most common viral diseases—Parainfluenza-3 and IBR.

One 2 cc. dose of Rea-Plex stimulates protection in susceptible cattle against both PI-3 and IBR—and offers the advantage of being a tissue culture origin, desiccated, modified live virus vaccine.

Safe, potent and effective . . . confirmed in field trials by bovine practitioners . . . with no adverse reactions reported in cattle even under severe stress conditions.

Available: 5 and 25 dose vials.

full dimension service to the veterinary profession

Today 22 Upjohn Distribution Centers dot the map and a number more are in various stages of planning and construction. A full stock of Upjohn products is available within one day's drive anywhere in the United States. But getting the products to market is only one dimension in the distribution story.

Information about veterinary products now available and those in development must be constantly disseminated. To share this product information with thousands of veterinarians, our "man with the alligator bag" has become a familiar extension of The Upjohn Company in your office or whenever you need him.

Upjohn offers a broad line of products to the veterinarian through the resourceful leadership of a management team with depth and breadth of experience in pharmaceutical research, production and marketing. Furthermore, Upjohn will continue to steadily introduce new products in the field of veterinary medicine because of the perspective taken by the Upjohn team with their constant questioning of the existing order of things, evaluation of new concepts, exploration of new systems and techniques, and search for new and better material and equipment.

If you would like a complete picture in full dimension of Upjohn and its history in veterinary medicine, please ask your man with the alligator bag for a brochure which will be available soon; or, write: The Upjohn Company, Department 951, Kalamazoo, Michigan.
